How to be a

Tuesday, October 19..... 6:30 pm

Laura George, author of Excuse Me, Your Job is Waiting, will present new material on today's best job hunting techniques. Ms. George's extensive experience as a Human Resources professional includes working for a Fortune 100 company, mid-sized and small companies. She will discuss how and why employers select specific candidates to contact and then interview. Her practical tips will help you see yourself as employers do. Let her insights about the current employment climate provide you with tools for success in your own job search.

No registration is required.

If you want to empower your own job search, plan to attend this program Tuesday, October 19, at 6:30 pm in the Main Library Auditorium, 60 South High Street, Akron.
