AN EVENING WITH EDDIE MULLER – TCM's "Czar of Noir"

Thursday, November 19, 7 pm
Main Library Auditorium

Eddie Muller is a contemporary renaissance man. He writes novels, biographies, plays, short stories and films. He also programs film festivals, curates museums, designs books, and provides commentary for television, radio, and movies. Muller is considered one of the major experts and authorities on "Film Noir," the classic American style of film associated with such greats as Humphrey Bogart, Robert Mitchum, and Barbara Stanwyck – So much so that he has earned the title of "the Czar of Noir," and programmed Turner Classic Movies' recent "Summer of Darkness" film noir marathon. Muller also is the producer and host of NOIR CITY: The San Francisco Film Noir Festival, the largest retrospective of noir films in the world.

Eddie Muller will share his unique knowledge and insights on this important and influential American art form. A Q&A will follow the presentation. Books will be available for purchase.

The program is free. Presented by the Akron-Summit County Public Library and Friends of Main Library.

Auditorium doors open at 6:30 pm.
