The puzzles begin easy and get progressively harder – but they are all solvable! Prizes will be awarded! All levels of crossword enthusiasts are encouraged to participate.

Here's how it works:

There are three stages, plus a final round. During each stage, contestants have twenty minutes to solve the puzzle as best they can. When finished (or when time's up), the puzzles are collected and our judges score them. The top three finalists (top three cumulative scores) are announced after the third round. They then compete against each other with the fourth, and most difficult, puzzle.
