Events in the Main Library Auditorium

FURRY Tails with a Twist

presented by Weathervane Playhouse in the Main Library Auditorium, Saturday, January 22, 2 pm. A play for ages 3 and up.

Follow the adventures of Sam and Alex, two bumbling actors trying desperately to present a few of the world's most beloved fairy tales. Unfortunately, their script becomes seriously scrambled and they perform GoldiSOCKS and the Three WOLVES, the Three Billy TROLLS Gruff, and The Three Little BEARS, who end up battling the Big Bad BILLY GOAT to delay the decimation of their domiciles. In addition to entertaining with humor, slapstick, and charm, Sam and Alex also guide the audience through the creative world of story structure, writing vocabulary, and theatrical staging. It takes the whole audience to set the stories straight for Sam and Alex. In the end both the actors and the audience have learned creative tale-telling through these Furry Tails...er...Fairy Tales.

This City Reads' Family Reading Festival

Saturday, February 5, 10 am-4 pm featuring Jim Gill and The Cuyahoga Valley Youth Ballet. We will also be joined by our friends from Western Reserve Media, Curious George and Clifford. Watch for more details.

Gathering Together To Change a Community—A Program For Children Celebrating Black History Month presented by Muszikat-Shalom (Music of Peace), Saturday, February 26, 2 pm. For ages 6 and up.

This children's program is designed to facilitate the development of a community through the vehicle of music. Led by Drene Ivy, who will teach through song about leaders of the Civil Rights Movement including Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Harry T. Moore, and Ella Baker. Music played a powerful role in the Civil Rights Movement and in King's oratory.

This program also discusses the outstanding accomplishments of African Americans including: scientist, George Washington Carver, inventor Benjamin Banneker and explorer Matthew Henson.

Songs of the Civil Rights Movement will be taught to the children.
