

The Jabberwocky

Based on the poem by Lewis Carroll

By Dakotah Brown, Noah Moody and Chad Shoheit
Directed by Lisa Ortenzi

Two Students band together after being bullied by classmates. To avoid their tormentors, the students follow a secret map and escape to the Tulgey Wood – where they meet a king who begs them to save his people from the fearsome jabberwocky! Meet colorful characters like Cheshire Cat, JubJub Bird, Bandersnatch, and a family of Momeraths as this unlikely but dynamic duo journeys to save a kingdom. Along the way, they find the courage to defeat the jabberwocky...and apply the lessons learned to face their fears back home.

Northwest Akron Branch Library

1720 Shatto Ave., Akron, OH 44313

Thursday, March 9, 1 pm

Nordonia Hills Branch Library

9458 Olde Eight Rd., Northfield, OH 44067

Thursday, March 16, 6 pm

Main Library Auditorium

60 S. High St., Akron, OH 44326

Saturday, March 18, 2 pm

This play is appropriate for elementary school-aged children and their families. The performance is fully staged with set, costumes, music and puppets! It will run about 50 minutes and is followed by a question and answer period.

Akron-Summit County Public Library

www.akronlibrary.org