

Celebrate Women's History Month and

Meet Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis, a VERY SPECIAL First Lady

Tuesday, March 1, 7 pm

This is the story of the most famous woman in the world; a woman who was born into a very privileged life with beauty, brains, and wealth, as Jacqueline Bouvier. It is the story of a childhood of divorce and private schools. As the wife of President Kennedy, she brought glamour and style to the White House, but was changed forever by tragedy and death. As Mrs. Onassis, she was one of the wealthiest women in the world, but was happiest being a mother and writer, and being left alone.

As the writer, actor, and producer of the one-woman production company, Famous American Women, Carol Starre-Kmiecik gives an entertaining and informative performance portraying Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis – a woman who brought glamour and style to the world.
