Local Author Talk with Dan Cuthbert, "The Shipyards of Sing"

Tuesday, February 16, 6:30 pm

When his children were young, Dan began writing a fantasy tale about another world where nature is revered as a beautiful mystery, but evil lurks about waiting for a chance to shift the balance. He is now a grandfather and currently lives in Akron, where he is writing the second book in this series while designing displays for a local art gallery where he has worked for the past 16 years. Dan will be reading excerpts from his first book, "The Shipyards of Sing," and answering your questions about the story and the writing process, from how to draw inspiration to how to find time to write. Copies will be available for purchase, and Dan will be happy to sign them.

Computer Training

No registration is required, however you must have a ticket to be admitted. 15 tickets will be distributed 30 minutes prior to class start.
