

One World, Many Stories

Fairlawn-Bath Branch Library

2011
Summer Reading Program for ALL Ages!

June 13-August 6

How the program works:

1. Check out a book from your Library and read it!
2. Come to your Library and fill out a card to join the fun.
3. From June 13 to August 6, fill out reading slips for weekly prize drawings.
4. Don't forget: programs for all ages will keep your family busy all summer.

Family Programs Tuesday's at 1 pm

June 14

Help us kick off the summer reading program with our annual Chalk the Walk program. If it rains, we will create window banners inside. It's a great day to register for the Summer Reading Program, get a goodie bag, and a great way to leave your mark for our community to enjoy.

June 21

Young scientists will not want to miss the return of the SciMobile. This program is all hands on and all fun. Science has never been so cool!

June 28

The Akron Zoo would like to introduce you to a few of their inhabitants. If you love animals, you won't want to miss this rare visit.

July 5

Acting Out! brings an original puppet theater production to the library. Full of audience participation and silly puppet escapades, this show is fun for kids and parents.

July 12

Professional Storyteller, Barb Sutton will make you remember why you love a good tale. This program is not just for kids. Barb has performed for audiences of all ages and won over even storytelling skeptics.

July 19

He's a magician, a juggler, and a comedian. You want to be here when the Great Kaplan brings his one man variety show to town.

July 26

HeartBEAT Afrika brings their dynamic drum program back to the library. This interactive program will have you clapping your hands, stomping your feet and beating your own drum.

August 2

Seona McDowell presents Australia, the Land Downunder. This musical program celebrates the customs and music of Australia and around the world. Performing traditional, contemporary and original material on guitar and autoharp, Seona brings the folklore and rich heritage of her music to children and adults alike.
