SCHOOLAGE PROGRAMS

Grades K-5 PAWS FOR READING

Children in kindergarten through 5th grades can practice their literacy skills by reading aloud to our doggie pals. This is a great way for children to build their reading fluency and read-aloud confidence. Children not yet reading are welcome to come.

The doggie's human pal will read to the child during the following times and dates:

Saturdays, from 10:30-11:30 am:
September 3, September 17, October 1, October 29, November 5, November 19

Grades 3-5, Thursdays at 6:30 pm

September 15 Canvas Tote Design

Create a colorful, stylish or outlandish book bag with paint and more. You'll be the coolest kid in school.

October 27 Wii

Come with your brothers, sisters and friends for this open Wii session. We'll have Wii sports and let's dance.

November 17 "Brownie in a Mug"

First, we'll bake and then we'll eat when you learn how to make a brownie for one in a mug.

SPEAKER'S SERIES

Monday, October 3 at 6:30 pm

Ghost Stories of the Civil War with Paul Goebbel. The Civil War is full of stories that nobody has ever been able to rationally explain. Ghost stories of the Civil War are the stories of the sites and locations with a twist. It's a fun way to explore the events that changed the history of the United States and to be a part of the 150th anniversary of the start of the Civil War. Help us kick off October with an unforgettably haunting evening of history, ghosts and fun.

Saturday, November 19 at 1pm

"How I Saw It: My Photographic Memory of the Soapbox Derby" Local author Jeff Iula grew up around the Akron Soap Box Derby. He has documented a plethora of memories and history surrounding the event in his unique new book "How I Saw It: My Photographic Memory of the Soapbox Derby." Don't miss out on this extraordinary opportunity to get a rare eyewitness account of the history behind one of Akron's most cherished traditions!
