

Summer Programs for Adults Fairlawn-Bath Branch Library

Read, Register, Win Prizes!

Register in the Adult Summer Reading Program and receive a free goodie bag. Then for each book you read, complete a purple entry slip for our weekly prize drawings.

You may be a winner!

Remember: keep busy all summer long with programs for all ages.

How the program works:

1. Choose from millions of great books to check out.
2. Fill out a registration card at your Library.
3. Entry slips for prize drawings will be accepted June 11 to August 4.

Do you enjoy writing creatively? Looking for a fun place to meet other area writers, network, and be critiqued on your work? We want YOU to join us in this coffee-shop style program! It does not matter if you are a teen or an adult, or if you write fiction, poetry, memoirs, or something entirely different – join us each month for a fun time filled with writing prompts and discussion.

“Own the Night” Photography Contest

Submit a photograph depicting a night scene. Photographs can feature any location. Your photo will be displayed in the Library and on the Fairlawn-Bath Facebook Page. Finalists will be determined by the voting public. The winning photo will then be chosen from the final four by library staff as the one that best depicts the theme and will receive a $20 Barnes and Noble gift card and local fame, of course! Additional information is available by contacting the Fairlawn-Bath Branch Library.

Submissions will be accepted at the Fairlawn-Bath Branch from June 11 through June 30. Voting will begin July 9 and end July 20.

Creating a Sense of Well-Being Through the Arts

June 4 This interactive program, presented by music therapist, Kathleen Dolesh, examines the relationship between art, music and general well-being. All patrons who attend will participate in a music experience demonstrating how music enhances general well-being.

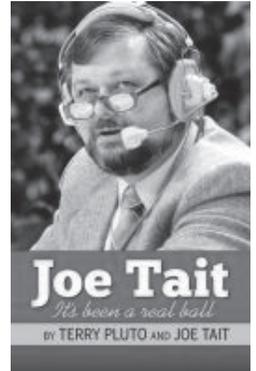

The Titanic and the End of the Edwardian Era

June 18 Mandy Altimus Pond, Archivist for the Massillon Museum, discusses the Titanic from concept to completion, the social climate before and after the sinking of the Titanic, and the passengers aboard. She will explain the early 1900s and why the Titanic was so significant, marking the end of the Edwardian Era with its sinking.

An Evening with Terry Pluto

July 2 Join us, as sportswriter, Terry Pluto, will be here to talk about the Cleveland sports scene. He will also discuss and sign copies of his most recent book, Joe Tait: It's Been a Real Ball. Other copies of his recent books will also be on hand. Please call or stop by the branch to sign up for this program.

Telling Our Stories: Ways to Honor Our Journey and Share Our Wisdom

July 30 One of the most valuable gifts we can share is the treasure of our memories, our stories and our traditions. Presenter, Beth Elsass, will teach us how to create a valuable legacy filled with memories, traditions, reflections and advice for our loved ones that future generations can cherish long after we are gone.

MIND, BODY & SOLE Start your summer reading on the right foot.

Mind, Body & Sole is a wellness activity and learning experience for the whole family to enjoy. Simply read 26 books, e-books or articles and run/walk 26 miles or 52,000 pedometer steps between June 11 and September 10. Best of all, participate at your own pace.

Sign up now at your nearest Akron-Summit County Public Library to receive a Summer Reading Program bag plus a pedometer and MB&S scorecard. Complete the program and receive a cool t-shirt, backpack tag, and you'll be included in drawings for great prizes.
