

Library Events for Adults

Fairlawn-Bath Branch Library

FALL 2015

The Fairlawn-Bath Friends Fall Book Sale

Friday, October 16, 3-5 pm Friends preview sale

Saturday, October 17, 9-10 am Friends preview sale

Saturday, October 17, 10 am-3 pm Open sale

Monday, October 19, 10 am-3 pm Bag Sale

Adult Programs

Anything Goes Book Discussion

Join us the second Monday of each month, 1 pm

September 14: CITY OF WOMEN

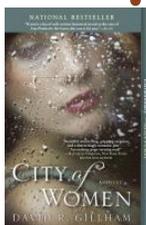

by David Gillham

October 12: THE OBITUARY WRITER

by Ann Hood

November 9: THE GIRLS OF ATOMIC CITY

by Denise Kiernan

Peace of Mind Legal Series – Linda Ulinski

Thursdays, 6 pm

September 3 Tax Considerations

October 1 Guardianship

Computer Training

Tuesday, October 6, 6 pm Internet, Pt. 2

Go beyond searching to find out what else the internet is used for.

Wednesday, October 7, 2 pm Resume Workshop

Bring your educational and work history and learn to use resume writing software to create your own personal resume. Flash drives are recommended to save your work.

Thursday, October 8, 6 pm iPads and Beyond

Learn how to set up your iPad and download apps.

Friday, October 9, 2 pm Open Lab Stop in for help with any of your computer or technological questions.

Bicycle Maintenance

Thursday, September 10, 6 pm This demonstrational program teaches you the parts, maintenance and repair of your bike. You will learn how to inspect and change a tire; keep your gears working correctly and brakes in good working order. This free program is presented by Eddy's Bike Shop.

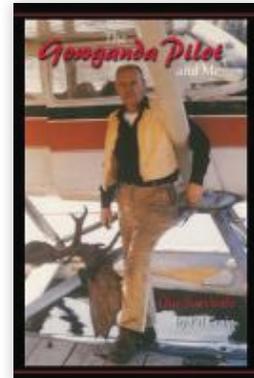

Flawless Skin Clinic

Thursday, September 17, 6 pm. In this demonstration you will learn how to have a beautiful, healthy face. Ladies ages 14-18 are also welcome, must be accompanied with adult. Registration begins August 24. This free program is presented by Trish Goodin-Yard from Mary Kay.

Author Talk: Pat Craig

Thursday, September 24, 6 pm

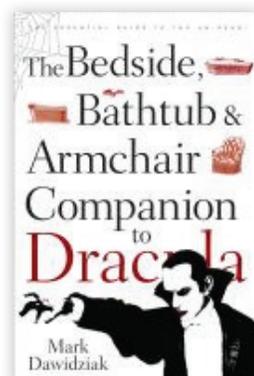

Craig discusses her book THE GOWGANDA PILOT AND ME, OUR SURVIVALS. A book signing will follow a PowerPoint presentation. THE GOWGANDA PILOT is the true story of a pilot from Akron, Ohio who loved flying and the wilderness of northern Ontario, Canada, written by his daughter who does not want their story to be forgotten.

Vampires and Count Dracula

Tuesday, October 13, 6 pm

Author and Professor Mark Dawidziak explores the history of vampires and Count Dracula in folklore, literature, films, and television. The presentation will include items from Mark's personal collection of vampire memorabilia.

FALL 2015

Felicia Zavarella Stadelman:

Through the Eyes of the Artist Series

Thursdays, 6 pm Back by popular demand, local art historian Felicia Zavarella Stadelman returns to give a three-part series that will give you in-depth looks at the lives of various artists. Join us for a series filled with pictures, art, music and history with one of the finest art historians in the area.

Toulouse-Lautrec

October 29

The bohemian artist of the “beautiful era” in Paris in the last decade of the 19th Century. He was once told “Your paintings are atrocious, but very chic.” His colorful and theatrical life yielded a collection of provocative images of his modern and sometimes decadent life.

Louis Comfort Tiffany

November 19

A savvy businessman, Tiffany built an industry to satisfy his creative energy. No American artist before or since has enjoyed such a universal reputation for versatility, creative genius and uniqueness of vision, and no other artist was able to turn art into industry.

Master Inspired Art Workshop:

Van Gogh's Starry Night

Thursday, December 10, 5:30 pm

Art Historian Felicia Zavarella Stadelman presents an interactive art program in which you will not only learn about the featured classic artist, also create art inspired by their work. We will gain insight into his passion and obsession, connect with the artist and appreciate even more the value of his work.

Please note the special time. Registration begins November 23. This program sponsored by the Friends of Fairlawn-Bath Library.

Antique Appraisals

Thursday, October 22, 6 pm

Antique appraiser and jewelry historian Jason Adams returns for another session of his popular antique and collectible appraisals. Limit two items per person (no swords or firearms). Registration begins September 21.

Safe Seniors

Thursday, November 5, 2 pm

This educational program for seniors will explore topics including protecting yourself while out and about, avoiding cons and scams, home safety, estate planning, and avoiding identity theft.

Medicare 101

Thursday, November 5, 6 pm

Are you new to Medicare or find it confusing? You're not alone! This program will help you understand Medicare, what it covers and what it does not. You will learn about Medicare Supplements, Advantage Plans and Part D Prescription Plans.

Your LIBRARY Value In Every Character

330-666-4888

Fairlawn-Bath Branch Library
3101 Smith Road, Akron, Ohio 44333
www.akronlibrary.org

