ANNUAL BRUNCH

Saturday
April 7

Highland Square Branch Library
807 W. Market St., Akron, OH 44303

10:30 – 11 am Enjoy brunch and socialize with our community.

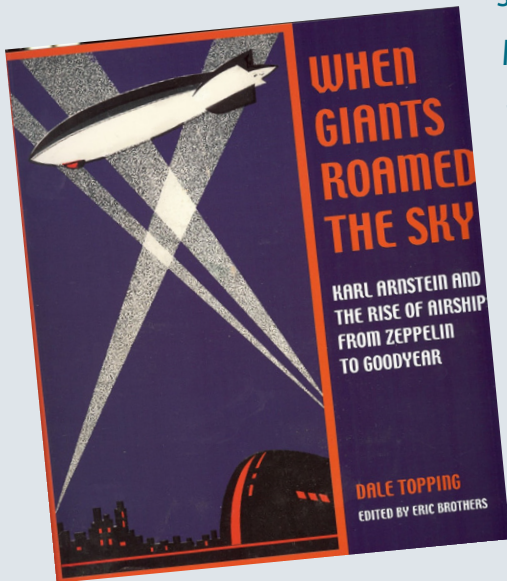

11 am-12 pm At 11 am, our Friends of the Library will introduce our guest speaker, Eric Brothers, editor of When Giants Roamed the Sky: Karl Arnstein and The Rise of Airships from Zeppelin to Goodyear. Following this presentation will be a book signing.

Please register by calling 330-376-2927 or visiting us at the Highland Square Branch Library.

Membership of the Highland Square Branch Library Friends of the Library is not necessary to attend.

Long-time board member of the Lighter-Than-Air Society; which was founded in Akron by Goodyear blimp builders, and editor of Buoyant Flight, the Society's newsletter; Eric Brothers is an expert on all things related to airships and Akron. A graduate of Ohio State University, and lifetime resident of Akron, he edited the book When Giants Roamed the Sky: Karl Arnstein and the Rise of Airships from Zeppelin to Goodyear and he has appeared in several televised documentaries as a subject-matter expert and served as a technical advisor on educational books related to airships. When not being an airship historian, Mr. Brothers is a senior editor of GIE Media, and writes for the publication Aerospace Manufacturing and Design. Don't miss this chance to hear a fascinating talk by Akron's own blimp expert.
