

Be a Friend!

- Odom Boulevard Branch Library was the third branch to open in the library system, opening in 1923 as Wooster Library in the old Akron Water works building. In 1954, Wooster Branch Library moved to its present location, constructed on a portion of Lane Field. Totally remodeled and expanded in 1999 to triple its former size, Odom Boulevard Branch (renamed in July 2003) continues its tradition of service to the community. When you become a Friend, you help maintain a variety of information sources available to the general public. Your membership and participation will support book sales, levy campaigns, and special programs and activities.
