Practical Advice on Getting Your Children's Picture Book Published

Tuesday, September 20, 6 pm

Local authors Allison and Wayne Marks share personal insights on what it takes to break into the children's picture book market. Topics include increasing your chances by targeting specific publishers, the importance of researching the current picture book market, finding a standout story, ruthless editing techniques, the do's and don'ts of preparing your manuscript for submission, and what to expect once your work has been accepted. Presentation includes a reading of their book, OG'S ARK (Kar-Ben Publishing 2016), handouts and a Q & A session. Please register for this program by calling us at 330-724-2126 or stopping in to visit us at the Firestone Park Branch Library.

B4 Bed + Stories for Adults

Tuesdays, September 6, October 4, November 1,

6:30 pm

Have you always wanted to start a good story only to realize you don't have the time? Or maybe you want to feel just like a kid again and have a good story read to you? Let your imagination wander as you join Storyteller Kyle Jozsa from Wandering Aesthetics as he shares a series of short stories for adults only. Please register for this program by calling us at 330-724-2126 or stopping in to visit us at the Firestone Park Branch Library.

Tales from Beyond

Monday, October 10, 6:30 pm

Jim Kleefeld will present strange artifacts, mentalist powers, and stories of unbelievable events. This program crosses Alfred Hitchcock with the X Files, Poe, and Ripley's Believe-it- or-Not! Content may not be suitable for young children.

Vinyl Revival Listening Group
