

Goodyear Branch Library presents its annual

WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH PROGRAM

Thursday, March 20, 6 pm

The Women In History Group of Lakewood present:
Viola Liuzzo, Civil Rights Activist.

Viola, a 40-year-old mother of 5, marched in Selma, Alabama with Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr., in 1965 to register African-American voters. Not long after her arrival, she was killed by the Ku Klux Klan.

Viola's dramatic story will be portrayed in character and in costume.

Please register to join us. Seating is limited.

This program is sponsored by the Goodyear Friends of the Library. Refreshments will be furnished by the Akron Business and Professional Women of Ohio.

Interpretive services are available. Please inquire.
