E-reader Holiday Extravaganza

Saturday, December 10, 11 am

Thinking about giving an e-reader for the holidays? Come and learn how to use the library's collection of downloadable e-books and e-audiobooks. Several different devices are available for hands-on demonstration and evaluation. Feel free to bring your own Nook, iPod, or other e-reader and any questions or concerns about these devices.

Mindful Eating

Wednesday, January 18, 7 pm

Mindful eating is not a diet. There are no menus or recipes. It is being more aware of your eating habits, the sensations you experience when you eat, and the thoughts and emotions that you have about food. It is more about how you eat than what you eat. Presented by Dr. Susan Albers. Please register in advance

Writers' Circle

January 23, 6:30 pm

Are you a writer and interested in getting published? Would you like to meet other aspiring authors? Then join us for a time of encouragement and discussion.

The Dred Scott Decision

February 27, 6:30 pm

Presented by Paul Goebbel, local Civil War historian.

The story of Dred Scott is really three stories in one. First, there is the story of a slave, Dred Scott, struggling hard to gain his freedom through the courts and eventually taking his case to the United States Supreme Court. The second story is about the Supreme Court, its role in interpreting the Constitution and federal law, and the limits of its power to resolve political problems. The third story is about the politics of slavery and the coming of the Civil War. The Supreme Court decision sparked enormous political reaction. It destroyed any chance of agreement between the North and the South over slavery in the territories.
