

Night Against Bullying

Tuesday, May 13

6-7:45 pm

at the Highland Square Branch Library

Are you being bullied or do you know someone who is? Are you a parent, community member, or educator and want to learn how to recognize or help people who are bullied?

Join us for our panel discussion on bullying. Panelists will include The Honorable Judge Linda Tucci Teodosio with the Summit County Juvenile Court, Summit County Juvenile Court Family Resource Center Program Coordinator Lisa Karas, and Attorney Tess Flannery, from Catholic Charities. Please join us for this panel discussion designed to raise awareness of the serious issue of bullying and discuss strategies parents and educators can take in helping our children. In addition, you will learn about available resources at the Summit County Juvenile Court and in the community for children who may be struggling at home or in school.

This program is for all ages. Please call 330-376-2927 or visit us at the Highland Square Branch Library to register or find out more about this program.
