

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Lecture

Sunday, January 18, 2015

2 p.m.

Main Library, 60 S. High St.

Donnadelliah Maluleke

Trade Commissioner, South African Consulate General
President, Chicago International Trade Commissioners
Association (CITCA)

Dr. King's Agenda: Economic Development and Empowerment – Global Impact

Ms. Donnadelliah Maluleke will discuss Dr. King's philosophy of economic empowerment from a global perspective and as a tool for advancement for all people.

Ms. Maluleke has extensive experience in trade and investment promotion and facilitation, investment analysis, market and financial feasibility study development, local economic development planning and deal structuring. Ms. Maluleke's responsibilities include promoting South African's exports, increasing trade of product and services in the Midwest, and encouraging partnership in economic ventures between the two countries.

Ms. Maluleke's private and public sector work experience includes KPMG's Advisory Services, and Industrial Development Corporation. She is the President of CITCA, an organization that represents International Trade Commissioners serving in the Midwest. She has a Master's degree in Business Leadership from the University of South Africa.

The Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Lecture is sponsored by the Akron-Summit County Public Library and the Eta Tau Lambda Chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc.

