LUCKY LITTLE LADYBUGS OH

SO SWEET Thursday, June 10, 6:30 pm
and Thursday, June 17, 6:30 pm

Due to anticipated response, the class will be offered twice.

You'll fall in love with these adorable ladybugs. Gourd artist Kathy Meekins will be returning to teach another class in miniature gourd painting. This time you will learn how to create charming little ladybugs. Tucked into flower beds or planters, these adorable little bugs will surely make you smile and possibly bring you luck! Class sizes are limited, so please sign up at 330-628-9228.

FAIRY TALES FROM THE HERB GARDEN

Thursday, July 15, 6:30 pm

Long ago people believed there was a plant spirit in every plant; and, this is how believing in fairies began. Do you know the fairies favorite color; their favorite food; their favorite plants? You will learn the history and traditions of fairy lore, the fairies' favorite plants and proper fairy etiquette. Learn which herbs to grow to make the fairies happy. Find out about fairy etiquette and how to attract the fairies to live in your very own fairy garden. Have you ever seen a fairy? What do they look like? How can you see them? See our own miniature fairy garden and learn how to make one, too. Join us for a magical Fairy education. Wear a fairy crown, wave a fairy wand, touch fairy wings and get sprinkled with fairy dust; but, most of all learn how to attract the fairies by making your own Fairy Garden. This is a program for all ages.

Kathleen Gips has been growing, studying and writing about herbs for over twenty-five years. Owner of The Village Herb Shop in Chagrin Falls, Ohio, Kathleen is a frequent lecturer at garden clubs, herb societies and symposiums. Her book, FLORA'S DICTIONARY: THE VICTORIAN LANGUAGE OF HERBS AND FLOWERS, is now in its third printing.

JUNE 2

SOUTH OF BROAD by Pat Conroy
Leopold Bloom King is the son of an amiable, loving father who teaches science at the local high school. His mother, an ex-nun, is the high school principal and a well-known Joyce scholar. After Leo's older brother commits suicide at the age of thirteen, the family struggles with the shattering effects of his death. Eventually he becomes part of a tightly knit group of high school seniors whose liaisons will ripple across two decades --from 1960s counterculture through the dawn of the 1980s.

JULY 7

THE GIRLS FROM AMES: A STORY OF WOMEN AND A FORTY-YEAR FRIENDSHIP by Jeffrey Zaslow
A testament to the deep bonds of women as they experience life's joys and challenges -- and the power of friendship to triumph over heartbreak and unexpected tragedy.

AUGUST 4

THE HELP by Kathryn Stockett
In Jackson, Mississippi, in 1962, there are lines that are never crossed. With the civil rights movement exploding all around them, three women start a movement of their own, forever changing a town and the way women--black and white, mothers and daughters--view one another.
