

MOGADORE PAST TIMES BOOK GROUP

For readers that enjoy historical fiction.
Wednesdays at 6:30 pm

September 15

TRINITY by Leon Uris

The Larkens, the Hubbles, and the Weeds are Catholic hill-farmers, Presbyterian industrialists, and British aristocracy fighting before and during the Easter Rising of Ireland in 1916.

November 17

ANNA KARENINA by Leo Tolstoy

A classic nineteenth-century Russian novel in which a young woman is destroyed when she attempts to live outside the moral law of her society.

January 19

DOCTOR ZHIVAGO by Boris Pasternak

Epic novel of post-revolutionary Russia focuses on the torments and dreams of a doctor-poet who attempts to avoid the struggles of his turbulent era.

March 16

BURR by Gore Vidal

Aaron Burr tells his biographer details of his life, including his duel with Alexander Hamilton and his two marriages.

May 18

CENTENNIAL by James Michener

The story of Centennial, Colorado, begins when the earth formed the area and ends in the 1970s with human disregard for its benefits and beauties, and also tells the history of relations between the white settlers and Native Americans.

Interpretive services are available. Please inquire.

Akron-Summit County Public Library

330-628-9228

Mogadore Branch Library
144 S. Cleveland Ave., Mogadore, Ohio 44260
www.akronlibrary.org

MG-3326/150/7-10/pp