

The 12th Annual Nordonia Hills Branch
Library Interactive Murder Mystery:

“Return To The Masquerade”

After the unpleasantness six years ago, we are hosting another masquerade party. The evening will be a festive celebration of the autumnal season.

Let us hope no guest comes to misfortune.

Join us for this enjoyable and exciting evening, where you and others will uncover clues, eliminate red herrings, and confer with your fellow guests to find the guilty villain.

The interactive social story line means you could be the sharpest Sherlock, or the party pooper headed for prison!

Saturday, September 29, 6 pm

(no admittance prior to 5:45 pm)

In-person registration only; registration begins at 7 pm on Thursday, September 6.

Ticket entry only – Two tickets only per person -
Seating limited to 48 – Tickets are FREE

Bring an appetizer or dessert to share.

Dress for a costume or masquerade party.

Prizes for the best investigator and the guilty culprit!
