BOOK DISCUSSIONS

Adult Book Discussion is the first Wednesday of each month at 1 pm. Stop by the library for your copy of the current book. No registration is needed. Refreshments will be provided. Join us:

June 3 THE TENDER BAR by J.R. Moehringer tells of J.R. Moehringer who grew up listening for the sound of his father's voice. His father, a disc jockey disappeared before J.R. spoke his first words. His mother was his world, but he needed something more. He turned to the patrons of a grand old New York saloon. There, the flamboyant characters along the bar taught him, tended him and provided a kind of fatherhood by committee.

July 1 THREE CUPS OF TEA: ONE MAN'S MISSION TO FIGHT TERRORISM & BUILD NATIONS-ONE SCHOOL AT A TIME by Greg Mortenson. This is the story of an American nurse's attempt to climb K2, the second tallest mountain in the world. His failure at doing so leads to a phenomenal success. Mortenson is dangerously ill after finishing his climb in 1993. He was sheltered for seven weeks by the small Pakistani village of Korphe; in return he promised to build the impoverished town's first school, a project that grew into the Central Asia Institute which has built more than 50 schools across rural Pakistan and Afghanistan.

August 5 We will read a variety of mysteries and share our favorites with each other.
