LIFESTYLE PROGRAMS

Please join us for a series of lifestyle programs for adults. There is something for everyone!

FINANCIAL EDUCATIONAL WORKSHOPS

Scott Mougey and John Gillmor, New York Life registered representatives present two educational workshops Wednesday, September 14.

No Registration needed.

1pm Retirees. You have worked for a lifetime and would like to stay retired. Build a fence around your retirement savings. Make sure you do not outlive your money. Work in retirement because you want to, not because you have to. Come to this educational workshop with ideas on how to make those things happen.

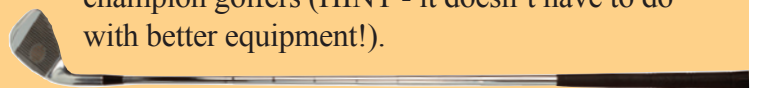

6:30 pm For young Families. You have a young family. What phase are you in? Protection, Accumulation or Distribution. Among other topics, your financial interests are college funding, income protection and reducing taxes, perhaps retirement funding. Come to an educational workshop with options on how to achieve your goals.

LIVING A HEALTHY LIFESTYLE

Dr. Brian Miles from HealthSource® returns to Norton Branch Monday, October 3 to present two more of his Healthy Living workshops.

At 2 pm join us for Ten Ways to Maximize Your Game! What do you want from your game, to hit farther, straighter, with greater accuracy? This workshop teaches 10 Traits common to all champion golfers (HINT - it doesn't have to do with better equipment!).

6:30 pm Dr. Miles presents How to Raise a Healthy Child. Healthy children don't happen by chance. Learn the important keys to raising a happy, healthy child as well as the "4 Cornerstones" to your own health that will help you do it. No registration needed.

RELAXATION

Tuesday, October 4, 6:30 pm enjoy a Gem Crystal Singing Bowl presentation by Kathleen Calby of Re-Sounding Joy. Leave your cares behind and relax to the soothing sounds produced by gem crystal singing bowls. Learn how these crystal bowls, blended with emeralds, rubies, diamonds, and quartz are made. Come play the bowls, feel the sound, experience how your whole body can hear. Registration is requested and begins Monday, October 19, 2011.

BOOK DISCUSSIONS

Join us the first Wednesday of each month at 1 pm for good books, great discussions, and light refreshments! No registration is needed all adults are welcome. We will discuss the following books this fall. Stop by the library for each month's selection.

September 7 South of Broad by Pat Conroy.

Leopold Bloom King is the son of an amiable, loving father who teaches science at the local high school. His mother, an ex-nun, is the high school principal and a well-known Joyce scholar. After Leo's older brother commits suicide at the age of thirteen, the family struggles with the shattering effects of his death. Eventually he becomes part of a tightly knit group of high school seniors whose liaisons will ripple across two decades--from 1960s counterculture through the dawn of the 1980s.

October 5 Half Broke Horses by Jeannette Walls.

A true-life novel about Lily Casey Smith (the author's grandmother) who at age six helped her father break horses, at age fifteen left home to teach in a frontier town, and later as a wife and mother runs a vast ranch in Arizona where she survived tornadoes, droughts, floods, the Great Depression, and the most heartbreaking personal tragedy--but despite a life of hardscrabble drudgery still remains a woman of indomitable spirit.

November 2 The Help by Kathryn Stockett.

In Jackson, Mississippi, in 1962, there are lines that are never crossed. With the civil rights movement exploding all around them, three women start a movement of their own, forever changing a town and the way women--black and white, mothers and daughters--view one another.

FALL PROGRAMS

CIVIL WAR HISTORY

Thursday, October 20, 6:30 pm Paul Goebbel, Civil War Living History Presenter shares Ghost Stories of the Civil War. These are stories of the sites and locations with a ghostly twist. It's another way to explore the events that would change the history of the United States and to be a part of the 150 year anniversary of the start of the Civil War. No registration is needed. Ghosts and goblins of all ages are welcome if accompanied by an adult. Costumes optional! No registration needed.

HOLIDAY DELIGHTS

Monday, November 14, 6:30 pm Kim Lucak, Independent Chocolatier, presents a fall candy making workshop. Enjoy the sight, smell, taste and touch of fine chocolate as each participant enjoys making and tasting molded chocolates. Registration is necessary and begins Monday, October 31, 2011.
