Chef Sarah

Thursday, December 6, 6:30 pm

Chef Sarah returns with ideas for the holiday. Let her teach you how to create some great little bites to make your next party a success. Enjoy her Party Bites demonstration. Space is limited; please pre-register beginning Monday, November 19.

Friends of Norton Branch Library Annual Meeting

Monday, December 10, 6:30 pm

Join us and local guest author, Kachina Riley. The evening will begin with a brief Friends of the Library meeting and continue with the presentation of TATTERED PHOENIX. Riley's book is a heroic, real-life American story chronicling one woman's brave fight for success in the last half of the 20th century. Riley details her family's brave struggles against mental illness and illiteracy. In the end, she is able to break free of her Appalachian roots and succeeds beyond anyone's expectations. TATTERED PHOENIX will rekindle memories for anyone who grew up in America during the post-war era. Books will be available for purchase and signing after the presentation. Refreshments will be served and are provided by the Friends of Norton Branch Library.

Holiday Party

Wednesday, December 12, 12:30 pm

Historian Paul Goebbel

Thursday, February 21, 6:30 pm

Join us for a return visit from Historian Paul Goebbel as historic news correspondent. He and his wife will present The Lincolns of Illinois. This is the story of Abraham and Mary Todd Lincoln, the differences and similarities of their early life, the love that grew when they met in Springfield, Illinois, the life they shared in the White House and the final tragedy for both the country and Mary. This is not the story of the Civil War; it is, instead, the story of a family enduring the Civil War. No registration is necessary.

Book Discussion for Adults

First Wednesday of each month, 1 pm
