

Ready, Set, Kindergarten!

Tuesdays, 6 pm at Odom Boulevard Branch Library

Each of the six sessions will focus on different skills to help children get ready for kindergarten. Join us for a group program of stories, activities, and learning. Afterward there will be individual interaction stations set up for parents and children to make and take ideas home for further learning. Snacks will be served. Please register for this program by calling 330-434-8726.

Colors All Around

June 21 Are lemons red? What color are you wearing? Join us for colorful stories, games and crafts.

Animal Fun

June 28 Old MacDonal had a farm with a cat, and a duck, and ...lots of rollicking, singing, animal fun.

A is for Apple

July 5 J is for JUMP! Move around the room learning letters and words.

Draw Me a Picture

July 12 Chalk, markers, pencils...there are many ways to write and draw.

Play Time

July 19 Play is a child's work so tonight we will work our imagination and play together.

All By Myself

July 26 What can you do? Lots of things! How do you feel? Ready for Kindergarten!
