

Fall Adult Programs at Portage Lakes Branch Library

Tuesday, September 29, 6:30 pm. Flavors of Fall

Chef Sarah will be showing us how to prepare our bountiful garden harvest. Using root vegetables, squash and other ingredients, Sarah will demonstrate her new ideas. Advance sign up please beginning Wednesday, September 16.

October is Local Author Month Thursday, October 8, 7 pm. Local Author Charlotte Marky

Local Author Charlotte Marky will tell the memorable story of her childhood in her new book Journey to Freedom. Born in Hungary, this is a young girl's story of the perils of World War II and the rise of Communism, of participating as a student freedom fighter in the Hungarian Revolution of 1956, of escape from behind the Iron Curtain to the promised land of America. This event is co-sponsored by the Friends of Portage Lakes.

Tuesday, October 20, 2 pm Local Author Jane Snow

Jane Snow is the former food editor of the Akron Beacon Journal. Her book, Jane Snow Cooks, is a delightful mix of tried and tasted recipes and stories. Ms Snow may whip up some delectable treats during her presentation. This event is co-sponsored by the Friends of Portage Lakes.

Thursday, November 5, 2 pm. Introduction to Digital Books

Explore the world of ebooks and digital audiobooks that are free with your ASCPL library card. We'll show you how to get started downloading and playing new titles from our growing 24x7 digital collection of e-materials.

Tuesday, November 17, 2 pm Gift Baskets with Cathy Morgan

Join us for an adventure in gift basket themes. Each participant will create a unique themed gift basket. You will top it off with a bow and it's ready for gift giving. Advance sign up please beginning November 4. This event is co-sponsored by the Friends of Portage Lakes.

Tuesday, December 1, 6:30 pm Easy Entertaining
