New! FamilySearch

Saturday, April 13, 10:30 am – 12:30 pm

FamilySearch is a nonprofit family history organization that has been gathering, preserving, and sharing genealogical records worldwide since 1894. This new class focuses on searching the historical records collections, family trees, genealogies, digitized books, and library catalog available on their website. As the site requires users to sign in before searching, we recommend that attendees who don't already have a free account visit www.familysearch.org/register to register for one before class. This class meets in Computer Lab 1, First Floor, Main Library. Registration requested.
