

Discover Your FAMILY HISTORY at the Library

Getting Started in Family History

Join the Special Collections Division for an introduction to genealogy for new family historians. Each session will include an overview of genealogical sources available at the library, suggestions for getting started, and tips for organizing your research. This workshop meets in the Special Collections Division, Third Floor, Main Library.

Saturday, June 12, 10 am

Tuesday, July 13, 6:30 pm

Saturday, August 7, 10 am

Branching Out: Second Steps in Genealogy Research

A more detailed continuation of Getting Started in Family History, this class is geared toward those who have already taken it or have done some research on their own. Participants will learn what to expect when working with vital records and obituaries, and basic search strategies for finding them in both online and traditional sources. Because this class will use Internet resources, basic computer skills are recommended. This workshop meets in meeting Room 1, High Street Level, Main Library.

Finding Your Family in the Census

United States Census records are rich sources of genealogical information. Join us as we learn more about using these valuable records in your family research. As we will be using electronic resources, basic computer skills are recommended. This workshop meets in Computer Lab 2, First Floor, Main Library.

Saturday, June 26, 10 am

Introduction to Internet Genealogy

Overwhelmed by the abundance of genealogy information on the Internet? Learn about genealogy databases that are available through the Library, as well as how to find and evaluate many popular free Internet genealogy Web sites. As the emphasis will be on using electronic resources, basic computer skills are recommended. This workshop meets in Computer Lab 2, First Floor, Main Library

Saturday, July 24, 10 am
