Finding Your Family in the Census

United States Census records are rich sources of genealogical information. Join us as we learn more about using these valuable records for your family research. As we will be using electronic resources, basic computer skills are recommended. This workshop meets in Computer Lab 2, First Floor, Main Library.

Saturday, October 16, 10 am

Finding Your Immigrant Ancestors

Most of us will find immigrant ancestors somewhere in our family tree. Join us for a discussion of identifying immigrant ancestors and locating passenger lists and naturalization records. As we will be using electronic resources, basic computer skills are recommended. This workshop meets in Computer Lab 1, First Floor, Main Library.

Saturday, October 30, 10 am

Internet Genealogy 1

Overwhelmed by the abundance of genealogy information on the Internet? In this introductory workshop, you will learn the basics about genealogy databases available through the Library and how to find and evaluate some popular free Internet genealogy Web sites. As the emphasis will be on using electronic resources, basic computer skills are recommended. This workshop meets in Computer Lab 2, First Floor, Main Library.

Saturday, November 6, 10 am

Internet Genealogy 2

What more does the Internet have to offer for the genealogist? Much more! In this follow-up workshop to Internet Genealogy 1, you will explore even more Web sites for genealogy research. It is recommended that participants first attend Internet Genealogy 1. As the emphasis will be on using electronic resources, basic computer skills are recommended. This workshop meets in Computer Lab 2, First Floor, Main Library.
