

OCTOBER is American Archives Month

We're kicking off American Archives Month with a day of learning about archival collections and services in our community and how you can care for historic materials in your own home.

Saturday, October 1, 2016

Meeting Room 2AB, High Street Level,
Main Library, 60 South High Street, Akron, Ohio

10:30 am-12 pm "Know Your Archives: What Summit County's Archives Can Do for You and What You Can Do for Archives"

Featuring panelists from the Akron-Summit County Public Library (ASCPL)'s Special Collections Division, the Summit County Historical Society of Akron, Ohio, and both the University of Akron's Archival Services and the Cummings Center for the History of Psychology (CCHP)

12:45-1:45 pm "Discover the Heritage of Summit County with Summit Memory," Rebecca Larson-Troyer, Librarian, ASCPL

The Summit Memory project (www.summitmemory.org) is a countywide, collaborative effort administered by ASCPL. Learn how to use the site in your own research and how organizations can become partners in the project.

2-3 pm "Preservation and Organization of Documents, Photographs, and Other Archival Materials," Rhonda Rinehart, Manager, Special Collections, CCHP

An exposition room will be open throughout the day. Stop in to learn more about these and other archival facilities in Summit County.

These programs are free and open to the public. To register for any session, contact the Special Collections Division at 330-643-9030 or speccollections@akronlibrary.org. Visit us on the web at www.akronlibrary.org under the "Research" tab.
