

Author Sharon Hatfield Enchanted Ground: The Spirit Room of Jonathan Koons

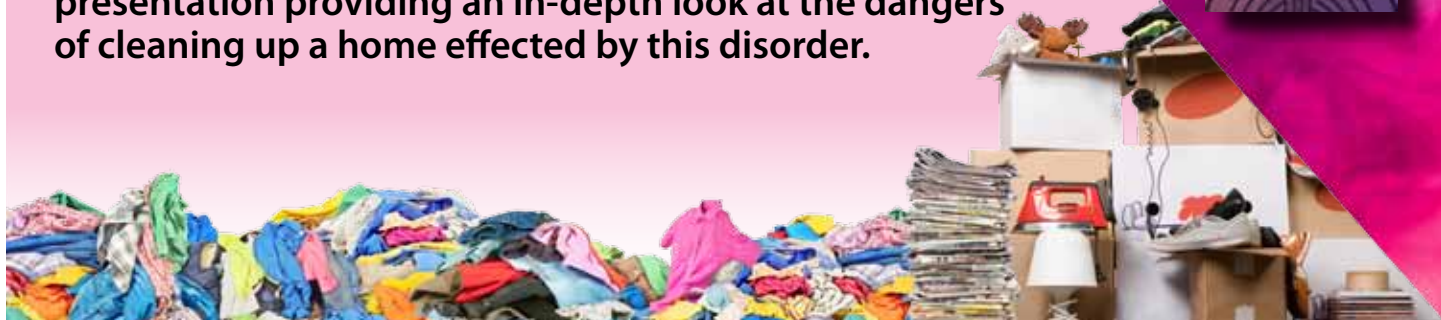

Saturday, May 18, 2-3:30 pm
Main Library-Meeting Room 2AB

Award-winning journalist and nonfiction writer Sharon Hatfield shares the story of Jonathan Koons, a 19th century farmer-spiritualist from southern Ohio. In a fascinating work of religious history and cultural inquiry, Hatfield brings to life the true story of Jonathan Koons, whom thousands traveled to Ohio to see. As heirs to the second Great Awakening, he and his followers were part of a larger, uniquely American moment that still marks the culture today.

Hoarding: A Simple Look into a Complex Disorder

Thursday, May 23, 6:30-8 pm
Main Library-Meeting Room 2AB

Based on the hit TV show Hoarders on A&E, this presentation takes a deeper look into the disorder of hoarding. Presented by local hoarding expert Marc Cline from Steri-Clean Cleveland, he will examine what happens when basic functions of a home can no longer be used for their intended purpose due to hoarding. There will be a biohazard portion of the presentation providing an in-depth look at the dangers of cleaning up a home effected by this disorder.

Please register with the Science & Technology Division by phone at 330-643-9075, in person, or online.

Akron-Summit County Public Library

330-643-9075

Science & Technology Division
60 S. High Street, Akron, OH 44326
www.akronlibrary.org