

Bountiful Harvest Saturday

Saturday, August 9, 12:30 pm – 3 pm

Join us for an informative day as we prepare for harvesting and preserving what we have grown all summer.

12:30 pm: Seed Saving and Sharing

Learn about the Library's Seed Sharing Program and how you can save some seeds from this year's plants to share or replant next spring.

1 pm: Preserving Your Harvest

Local experts from Let's Grow Akron will share canning and preserving tips.

2 pm: Extending Your Growing Season

William "Liam" Murray from Hattie's Gardens will offer ideas on how to extend your growing season.

Please note: this event will take place in the Meeting Rooms along the Library's High Street Level.
