Main Library Auditorium
Saturday, January 10, 12:30 pm

Please register for this program by calling 330-643-9075 or by email to stdiv@akronlibrary.org

12:30 pm Greg Miller will present “My Big Story” relating how he came to do a Big Year – a special competition to see the largest number of bird species in one year. He will share the story behind the book The Big Year and the resulting movie, and what it was like to work on a Hollywood movie set and be portrayed by Jack Black.

1:45 pm Backyard Bird Feeding with Chris Stranahan. Chris of Wild Birds Unlimited will share his extensive information about backyard birding using his knowledge about bird habitats, behavior, and care.

3 pm Avian Photography in NE Ohio with Rob Blair a professional videographer and photographer, will help us improve our bird photography in natural light settings, discussing the best equipment options for a minimal budget, camera settings, technique, composition, locations and editing.

Interpretive services are available. Please inquire.
