What's On the Menu?

Saturday, June 24, 2017
Main Library, Meeting Room 2AB

Introduce fun eats into your heart and home. Join us for a day of cooking demonstrations.

10:30 am - Abbe Turner is the milkmaid at Lucky Penny Farm, her family goat dairy farm in Garrettsville, Ohio. Goat and sheep milk, produced in conjunction with partner farms, is handcrafted into artisanal cheeses. Today she will be informing us about the many uses of goat milk and demonstrating how to make homemade ricotta cheese.

11:45 am - Cookbook author Carla Snyder has spent the past 30 years in the food world and has authored eight cook books including the James Beard nominated Big Book of Appetizers. Her latest releases are One Pan Two Plates: More than 70 Complete One Pan Meals for Two, Sweet and Tart: 70 Irresistible Recipes for Desserts and Savories Made with Citrus, and One Pan Two Plates Vegetarian Suppers. Join her as she experiments with vegetarian delights.

1 pm - Explore Arabic cuisine with Alia Almaszni. Learn how richly flavored spices are a key element in making Middle East dishes and how various cultures and religions have influence the cuisine. Gain a greater understanding of the culture and various Arabic dishes.

Programs are free and open to all. Please contact Science & Technology at 330-643-9075 or stdiv@akronlibrary.org with any questions.
