VERB Ballets is a non-profit organization comprised of professional dancers dedicated to performing works by contemporary choreographers from around the nation for students of all ages and backgrounds. VERB Ballets teaches valuable lessons about mathematics, rhythm, science, social studies, language arts and self-expression through contemporary dance. Under the leadership of Dr. Margaret Carlson, VERB Ballets continues to impress audiences and promote interest in contemporary dance.

VERB Ballets has also danced as part of the Heinz Poll Summer Dance Festival in Akron.
