Featured Speaker: Dorf Backderf

Dorf Backderf is a world-renowned, award-winning comics creator and graphic novelist. His graphic novel, My Friend Dahmer, is hailed as one of the finest graphic novels in recent history. The successful film adaptation played in cinemas worldwide in 2017 and 2018. His latest graphic novel Trashed, inspired by his garbage truck career, won an Eisner award and is in development as a film project.

Dorf will be speaking about his work and career at 2 pm in the Main Library Auditorium and will be available for a book signing after the presentation.
